

Improving Companies' Reputations

Study participants revealed four major areas for improving company reputation:

1. Be open and honest with information
2. Support more research
3. Practice integrity and high ethics
4. Control costs and lower drug prices